

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 22, 2009

Local Fishing Guide Contributes to New Fishing Book.

Secrets from Florida's Master Anglers offers both tourists and natives a fishing resource like no other. Professional fishing guide Ron Presley conducted privileged interviews with twenty of the state's top charter-boat captains. The result is a collection of tips and techniques sure to make your next fishing excursion a success.

One of the master anglers include in the book was St. James City's Capt. John "GiddyUp" Bunch. It was the majestic tarpon that first sparked his interest in guiding, but he is also experienced and knowledgeable at nearshore and inshore trolling for grouper. Capt. "GiddyUp" offered numerous personal fishing tips to the pages of the book. Then, after reading the book he commented, "To be righteously honest with you, I learned volumes from reading this book."

Presley and company reveal the secrets of choosing the right equipment, using bait and tackle, proper casting, and the art of landing a big fish. They explains the key differences between fishing from shore or boat and good manners for the angler, Throughout, anecdotes and stories from the master fishing guides bring the lessons of the book to life.

So whether you want to spend the day on the shallow flats or the nearshore ocean, start by learning the secrets exposed in this new fishing book!

"Ron's highly privileged interviews with many of Florida's top guides expose lots of secrets that are sure to improve fishing success." —Phil Chapman

"A great peek into twenty of the finest fishing minds of Florida! No matter your current skill level, this book will improve your confidence on the water."—Brett Fitzgerald

"Overall, this is a great guidebook for anyone interested in getting started in saltwater fishing, and even those who have been at it for years can't help but learn plenty from its pages."—from the preface by Frank Sargeant

Ron Presley is a professional fishing guide, licensed USCG charter-boat captain, and the secretary/treasurer of the Florida Guides Association.